1. Create an object that represents your favourite coffee. Please include coffee name, strength, flavour, milk, sugar, … everything you like!

2. Create an object that represents your favourite movie. Please include title, actors, director, genre, popularity.

3. Write a function that creates an object that represents a project. Each project is described by: description, programming language, git repository, boolean status that says if the project is in development or not. Add a method that prints out the project's repository, a method that checks if the project is written in JavaScript as well as a method that checks if the project is in development or not.

4. Write a function that creates an object that represents a culinary recipe. Each recipe is described by: name, type of cuisine, complexity (value from 1 to 5), list of ingredients, preparing time, preparing instruction.
    ○   Add a method that prints out all the ingredients necessary for the meal preparation.
    ○   Add a method that checks if a meal can be prepared for 15 minutes.
    ○   Add a method that changes the type of cuisine to the given value.
    ○   Add a method that delete a given ingredient from the list of ingredients.